This image displays a collection of 50 Finnish postage stamps, arranged in five rows of ten. The stamps are from the years 1954 to 1959, as indicated by the dates on some of the stamps (e.g., 1954, 1955, 1956, 1957, 1958, 1959). The stamps feature a variety of designs, including landscapes, historical figures, and modern architecture. The denominations of the stamps are visible, ranging from 25 to 300 Finnish marks. The word 'SUOMI' or 'FINLAND' is printed on most of the stamps. The stamps are arranged in a grid-like fashion, with some overlapping. The background is a light-colored, textured surface.
