The collage consists of numerous Italian postage stamps from 2006, arranged in a dense, overlapping grid. The stamps feature a wide variety of themes:

- Historical Figures and Monarchs: Stamps honoring Giuseppe Mazzini (1805-1872), Benedetto XVI (April 19, 2005), and Pope John Paul II (October 16, 1978 - April 2, 2005).
- Art and Culture: Stamps depicting the Colosseum, the Regency of Sicily, and various Italian artworks, including a Pietà and a scene from the 'Divine Comedy'.
- Sports: Stamps related to the 2006 FIFA World Cup, featuring the Italian national team and the tournament's logo.
- Landmarks and Regions: Stamps showcasing Italian architecture, such as the Palazzo di Giustizia in Rome, and regional scenes from Tuscany and Lazio.
- Commemorative Themes: Stamps marking the 50th anniversary of the UN, the 100th anniversary of the Italian Republic, and the 60th anniversary of the Constituent Assembly (1946-2006).
- Other Themes: Stamps featuring the Italian flag, the Olympic rings, and various symbols of Italian identity.

The word "Calcatori" is written in a stylized, colorful font across the middle of the collage. The stamps are set against a dark, textured background, and the overall composition is a vibrant display of Italian philately.
