A large collection of Panamanian postage stamps is displayed on a dark background. The stamps are arranged in several rows. The top row features stamps with denominations of 10c, 20c, and 500c, depicting various themes including national fruits, sports, and international relations. The middle section includes stamps with denominations of 10c, 20c, and 45c, featuring portraits of historical figures and maps. The bottom section contains stamps with denominations of 10c, 20c, and 45c, depicting various themes including national fruits, sports, and international relations. The stamps are colorful and detailed, with some featuring intricate designs and others showing portraits of notable figures. The collection is extensive, covering a wide range of Panamanian history and culture.
