A large collection of Panamanian postage stamps is displayed on a dark background. The stamps are arranged in several rows. The top row features stamps with denominations of 10c, 20c, and 500c, depicting various themes including national fruits, sports, and international relations. The middle section includes a large stamp with a map of Panama and a smaller one with a portrait of a man. The bottom section contains a series of stamps with denominations of 10c, 20c, and 50c, depicting various themes including national fruits, sports, and international relations. The stamps are colorful and feature various designs, including portraits, maps, and symbols.
