This image displays a collection of German Democratic Republic (DDR) postage stamps from 1968. The stamps are arranged in a grid-like fashion on a light-colored background. The themes of the stamps include:

- Sports: Several stamps feature athletes in action, including a runner (10 DDR), a swimmer (10 DDR), and a weightlifter (15 DDR). There are also stamps for the Winter Olympics (Winterspiele) and the World Weightlifting Championships in Berlin (1966).
- Culture and History: Stamps depict historical figures like Karl Landsteiner (10 DDR) and Karl Marx (20 DDR). There are also stamps related to the 15th anniversary of the German Democratic Republic (15 Jahre DDR) and the 75th anniversary of Heinrich Heine (75 Jahre Heine).
- Architecture and Landmarks: Stamps show various buildings and landmarks, including the Reichstag (10 DDR) and the Reichstag dome (10 DDR).
- Transportation: Stamps feature a ship (15 DDR) and a train (10 DDR).
- Other Themes: Stamps also depict a woman (10 DDR), a man (10 DDR), and a group of people (10 DDR).

The stamps are printed in various colors and denominations, with the DDR logo prominently displayed on many of them. The collection is a diverse representation of the cultural and historical heritage of the German Democratic Republic in 1968.
