The image displays a collection of Egyptian postage stamps, primarily from 1963 and 1964. The stamps are arranged in a grid-like fashion on a light-colored background. The top row features a blue stamp (UAR 1963) with a portrait of a man and a green stamp (UAR 1964) with a coat of arms. The middle row includes a yellow stamp (UAR 1964) with a coat of arms, a blue stamp (UAR 1964) with a coat of arms, and an orange stamp (UAR 1964) with a coat of arms. The bottom row shows a blue stamp (UAR 1964) with a map of Africa, a green stamp (UAR 1964) with a coat of arms, a blue stamp (UAR 1964) with a coat of arms, and a blue stamp (UAR 1964) with a map of Egypt. The stamps are labeled with 'UAR' and 'POSTAGE' and include various denominations and dates.
