A collection of postage stamps from various countries, including Chad, Mexico, and the USA, featuring themes of space exploration, telecommunications, and national figures. The stamps are arranged in a collage-like fashion. Notable stamps include: a Chad stamp (100F) showing a rocket launch; a Mexico stamp (200F) featuring a large moon and the text 'MEXICO CHAMPIONNAT'; a USA stamp (100F) depicting a satellite; and several USA stamps (0.50F, 1F, 25F, 30F) honoring Col. John H. Glenn. Other stamps show telecommunications equipment, a city skyline, and portraits of men. The stamps are in various colors and denominations, with some featuring intricate designs and others being more straightforward portraits or symbols.
