The image displays two pages of a stamp album, densely packed with New Zealand postage stamps. The stamps are arranged in a grid-like fashion, though some are slightly offset or overlapping. The designs are diverse, ranging from floral motifs (roses, carnations) to landscapes (mountains, lakes, forests), historical figures (men in suits, a woman in a tiara), and national symbols (the New Zealand coat of arms, the Silver Fern). Denominations are clearly visible on many stamps, including 1c, 2c, 3c, 4c, 5c, 6c, 7c, 8c, 10c, 12c, 13c, 14c, 15c, 16c, 20c, 23c, 25c, 30c, and 35c. Some stamps also feature the text 'NEW ZEALAND' and 'Post Office'. The album pages are cream-colored with yellowish-brown borders. The overall presentation is a comprehensive collection of New Zealand philately.
