中国古代钱币

ANCIENT COINS OF CHINA CERTIFICATE OF AUTHENTICITY

这个信封是《中国古代钱币》邮票首日封十六个中的第五个。邮票是一九八一年十月二十九日邮电部发行并在山东省临淄（古齐城临淄）加盖邮戳。信封上的古钱，是经钱币学家鉴定为战国时期齐国钱币真品后仿制的。原件长184毫米，宽31毫米，重50克。藏于北京中国历史博物馆。信封的首日邮戳证明，此封永远不能再次发行。

This is the fifth in a collection of sixteen Philatelic-Numismatic First Day Covers of the Ancient Coins of China. The stamp was issued on October 29, 1981, by the Ministry of Posts and Telecommunications, and postmarked at Linzi, Shandong Province (Linzi of Qi Kingdom). It contains a replica of an authentic coin of Qi Kingdom during the period of the Warring States, created under the supervision of numismatic experts. The original (184mm by 31mm and 50 grams in weight) is kept in the custody of the Museum of Chinese History in Beijing. As the postmark thereon shows, the cover will never be reissued.
