The image displays a collection of Vatican City postage stamps. The central feature is a large, rectangular 150-cent stamp commemorating the 150th anniversary of the Gregorian Museum. This stamp has a yellow background and features a profile of Pope Gregory XIII, the text "150° ANNIVERSARIO DELLA FONDAZIONE DEL MUSEO GREGORIANO", and a large blue statue of a woman. Above the main text are several small stamps: a 400-cent stamp with a map of Italy and the year 1978, a 450-cent stamp of St. Peter's Basilica, a 1350-cent stamp of Pope Gregory XIII, and a 150-cent stamp of St. Peter's Basilica. To the right of the main stamp is a 100-cent stamp of a parrot and a 1500-cent stamp of a bird. Below the main stamp are several smaller stamps: a 150-cent stamp of a bird, a 200-cent stamp of two birds, a 350-cent stamp of a bird, a 500-cent stamp of a cardinal, a 700-cent stamp of a bird, and a 1500-cent stamp of a bird. At the bottom of the collection are four stamps with denominations of 500, 1000, 3000, and 5000, each featuring a different landscape or architectural scene. The stamps are arranged in a grid-like fashion, with the larger stamps at the top and smaller ones below.
