A collection of 25 postage stamps from various countries, including Algeria, Tunisia, and Mauritania, displayed on a white background. The stamps feature diverse designs such as landscapes, buildings, and historical figures, with denominations ranging from 1 to 100 francs. The stamps are arranged in a grid-like fashion, with some blank spaces between them. The colors of the stamps include blue, green, purple, red, and brown. The designs include coastal scenes, historical buildings, and natural landscapes. Some stamps have text in French, such as "POSTES ALGERIENNES" and "POSTES TUNISIENNES". The denominations are clearly visible on many of the stamps, such as "1", "2", "5", "10", "20", "25", "35", "50", and "100".
