A collection of 100 vintage postage stamps from Portugal, arranged in a grid on a white background. The stamps feature various designs, including portraits, landscapes, and symbolic figures, with denominations ranging from 100 to 1000. Some stamps are cancelled with circular postmarks. The stamps are organized into rows, with some rows containing multiple stamps of the same denomination or design. The colors of the stamps are diverse, including red, blue, green, yellow, and purple. The text on the stamps includes "PORTUGAL", "CORREIO", "DE LISBOA E PORTO", "REPÚBLICA PORTUGUESA", and "UNION POSTALE". Some stamps have cancellation marks, such as "TELO" and "REIS". The stamps are arranged in a grid that is approximately 10 rows by 10 columns, with some rows having more stamps than others. The stamps are of various sizes and shapes, including rectangular and square. The background is a plain, light-colored surface. The overall appearance is that of a well-curated collection of historical postage stamps.
