"British Council"

1984 - Serie corrente

Before the introduction of Postage Due Labels in 1914, the amount due to the Post Office was written or stamped on the letter or parcel. However, on 20 April 1914, Britain introduced its first series of labels which were designed by G W Eve. They were ½d, 1d, 2d and 5d but these were soon followed by other values which made a comprehensive range by 1924. This basic design remained in use until 1970-71, a period of more than 50 years, longer than any British stamp design.

The second design, by Jeffery Matthews, was issued in 1970-71 and the latest set issued in 1982, was designed by Sedley Place Design Limited.
