This collection of 45 Turkish postage stamps, issued between 1960 and 1963, is arranged in four rows. The top row features 16 stamps, mostly portraits of Mustafa Kemal Atatürk and other prominent figures, with denominations ranging from 1 to 220 kurus. The second row contains 10 stamps, including portraits and commemorative designs. The third row has 10 stamps, featuring portraits and a 100-year anniversary stamp. The bottom row consists of 9 stamps, including international themes like the Red Cross and Red Crescent, and domestic commemorations. The stamps are printed in various colors and denominations, reflecting the postal needs and commemorative calendar of the early 1960s.
