CIVIL RIGHTS PIONEERS

THE COURAGE AND COMMITMENT OF THESE MEN AND WOMEN.
LEADERS OF THE STRUGGLE FOR AFRICAN-AMERICAN CIVIL RIGHTS.
ENERGIZED A MOVEMENT THAT SPANNED GENERATIONS.

Norman Rockwell

From our doughboys in WWI to our astronauts striding across the moon, Norman Rockwell's artwork has captured America's traditional values along with the characteristic optimism of its people. Rockwell loved people, and people loved him. He was an enormously skilled technician and, according to several new reassessments, a true artist. He had a genius for capturing the emotional content of the commonplace.

Depression, Dust Bowl, and a New Deal

By 1933 the average wage was 60 percent less than in 1929 and unemployment had skyrocketed to 25 percent. Dust storms forced many farmers to give up their land. Americans escaped harsh realities by playing Monopoly, reading the adventures of "Buck Rogers" and "Flash Gordon," and listening to Hoagy Carmichael's "Swanee" and "Stardust." Popular films included King Kong and It Happened One Night. For the first time, African-American athletes became national idols: Joe Louis in boxing and Jesse Owens in track and field. Prohibition was repealed in 1933. President Franklin Roosevelt fought the Great Depression with his New Deal programs. The "Star-Spangled Banner" was chosen as the national anthem. The Empire State Building rose above the Manhattan skyline and the Golden Gate Bridge spanned the San Francisco Bay. Back on the ground, the parking meter made its first appearance in 1935. As the decade closed, many Americans were anxious about the growing war in Europe. New words: all-star, oops, pizza, racism

CELEBRATE THE CENTURY™

In Final Decade, Cold War Ends, Economy Booms

The Soviet Union collapsed, effectively ending the Cold War. Troops were deployed by the United States in the Persian Gulf, in Somalia, and in the Balkans—in 1992—often called the Year of the Woman—in a record number of women were elected to political office. American astronauts joined Russian cosmonauts on the Mir space station, and Mary Parthinder and Mary Global Surveyor sent back extraordinary images of the red planet. A grouping of planets resembling our solar system was found by astronomers. The World Wide Web and e-mail revolutionized communications. Millions of Americans bought cellular phones as service expanded. In Washington, D.C., the Holocaust Museum drew huge crowds, while in Los Angeles, the Getty Center's architecture got rave reviews. Moviegoers flocked to see Titanic and Jurassic Park. Extreme sports, such as snowboarding and BMX biking, attracted young people, and the U.S. women's softball, soccer and basketball teams proved themselves the best in the world. New words: e-commerce, Web site, Y2K.
