A collection of Belgian postage stamps is displayed on a page. The stamps are arranged in several rows, showing various denominations and designs. Some stamps feature portraits of historical figures, while others depict landscapes, animals, or abstract art. A large, stylized black ink drawing of a chair or bench is overlaid on the lower right portion of the stamps. The drawing is composed of thick, expressive lines. The stamps are from Belgium, as indicated by the word 'BELGIË' or 'BELGIQUE' on many of them. The denominations visible include 3, 5, 6, 7, 9, 15, 16, 30, 41, 50, and 95. Some stamps are cancelled with a circular postmark. The background of the page is a light, textured paper.
