H.M.S. Alderney through the Years

This issue coincides with the 250th Anniversary of the bombardment and capture of Chagres, Santa Marta, Colombia, in which the first H.M.S. Alderney, under Vice-Admiral Vernon, participated and gained a battle honour. The stamps are covering three fine eighteenth century sailing vessels and two modern war ships.

Automation of the Casquets (Trinity Lighthouses)

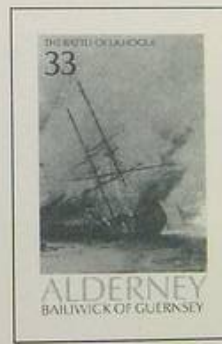

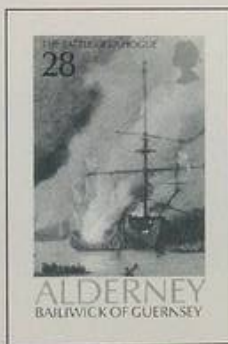

In 1723 a patent was granted to Thomas Le Coq to show three coal fires in such a position as to distinguish the danger from others in the area. Automation of the three towers now took place in November 1990.

1992

300th Anniversary of the Battle of La Hogue

In 1692 a combined Anglo-Dutch fleet defeated the French and prevented an attempt by King James II to regain the English throne.

Alderney Sea Life

Tommy Rose — Master of the Skies

This issue commemorates the Birth-centenary of Flight Lieutenant Tommy Rose (1895-1966).
For his activities in the local government and as a pilot, he earned the love and respect of the people of Alderney.

The Return of the Islanders

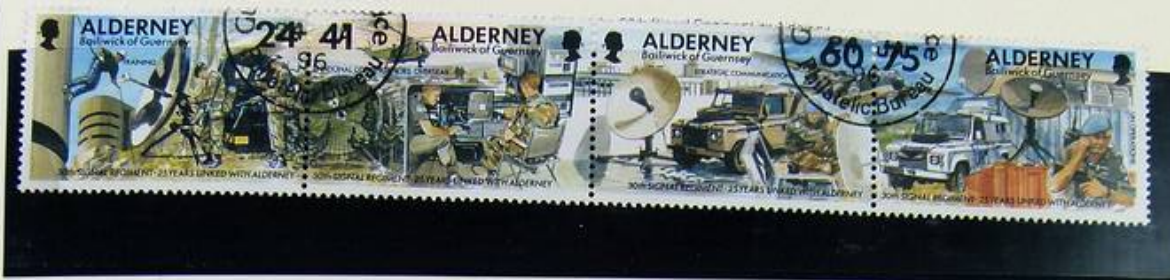

From 1940 (entry of UK in World War II) to 1945 the northern parts of the Channel Islands were evacuated almost completely.
The "SS Autocarrier" brought back the first inhabitants in 1945.
